

WILSON'S MESSAGE PRESENTED TO BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS

The President Confines Himself Almost Entirely to Domestic Questions—Did Not Touch Upon the League of Nations—Recommends a "Workable Budget System"

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Both houses of congress were in brief session today to hear President Wilson's annual message. It was read by the clerk, Mr. Wilson having heeded the advice of his physician not to appear in person to present his recommendations.

Galleries in both senate and house were crowded. Those drawn by the chance that the president might appear or by the possibility that his message might touch on the league of nations question or his own approaching retirement to private life were disappointed.

Mr. Wilson confined himself almost entirely to domestic questions. Only by inference did his message refer to the nearing close of his administration and that was in the concluding paragraph.

The proposals he presented, the president wrote, were not so much a series of recommendations as a confession "of faith in which I was bred and which it is my solemn purpose to stand by until my last fighting day."

Aside from the hearing of the president's message congress made definite progress on at least one of the problems it faces during its brief session.

The house received a rule under which an effort will be made on Thursday to take up the immigration bill for prompt action.

It would limit general debate to four hours. The two-day interval was allowed to permit Representative Siegel of New York, a member of the immigration committee to frame a minority report.

No other matter in either house had passed today beyond the committee stage. At both ends of the capital, however, members were deep in plans to deal with business depression, unemployment and farmer's relief.

Discussions in the senate of the plight of farmers delayed the reading of the president's message in that body.

Touches Industrial Situation
The industrial situation also found a place in the president's message. Recovery from war effects gave promise of early completion only in our fortunate country, Mr. Wilson said, and even here "halts and is impeded at times."

A program of "immediately serviceable acts of legislation to aid that recovery, and to prove the indestructible recuperative force of a great government of the people," should be undertaken, Mr. Wilson said adding:

"One of these is to prove that a great Democracy can keep house as successfully and in as business like fashion as any other government."

First among his recommendations, Mr. Wilson placed enactment of a "workable budget system."

He said he vetoed the budget bill passed at the last session "reluctantly" and because of "a constitutional objection," but as it was later revised in the house he believed it would, with other measures, form "a foundation for a national budget system."

Mr. Wilson cited figures as to the national debt and urged "rigid economy, in which all branches of the government should cooperate."

Necessity of Economy
"I cannot over emphasize," he said, "the necessity of economy in government appropriations and expenditures and the avoidance by congress of practices which take money from the treasury by indefinite or revolving fund appropriations."

This year's estimates "strikingly" illustrated the importance of specific appropriations, the president added the transportation act having disturbed the relations between current receipts and expenditures to the extent of over a billion dollars.

"It is obvious," the message continued, "that these large payments have already seriously limited the government's progress in retiring the floating debt."

CLARK NAMED TO SUCCEED HAMILL
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 7.—Elam L. Clark of Waukegan today was appointed chairman of the committee on phraseology and style of the constitutional convention to succeed Delegate Charles H. Hamill of Chicago, who resigned that post yesterday. Ward H. Brewster of Dixon, was appointed to fill the vacancy on the same committee caused by Delegate Clark's appointment. At the same time President Charles E. Woodward of Ottawa, accepted Delegate Clark's resignation as editor of convention debates.

Delegate Walter Wilson of Chicago, today notified President Woodward he wished to resign as chairman of the committee on expenditures and supplies.

President Woodward explained the changes in the committees were the outcome of the convention's action last week in limiting Chicago and Cook county's representation in the general assembly. Only thirteen Chicago delegates were present today.

MANY CONFERENCES BETWEEN HARDING AND COLLEAGUES

Talk About League of Nations and Cabinet

PATRONAGE NOT DISCUSSED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—President-elect Harding concluded today his two-day visit to Washington with another succession of conferences in which he talked with his party associates about the league of nations, the selection of a cabinet and other problems confronting him in the building of his administration. The president-elect did not call President Wilson, but en route to the station he stopped at the White House to leave his card and that of Mrs. Harding. The automobile bearing the senator and his party drove up to the north entrance to the executive mansion, where it was met by I. H. Hoover, chief usher of the White House. Mr. Harding presented the cards, saying that he desired to leave them "for the president," and then continued on to the station.

All of those with whom Mr. Harding conferred today preserved silence regarding the discussions and the senator himself said the conversations were of a confidential nature. He repeated his statement of yesterday that he was seeking by direct personal consultation to frame an administrative policy behind which everyone could unite. In his search for information and advice about the league of nations, the president-elect summoned Republican senators of both groups in the fight against the treaty and it is understood he told them he wanted suggestions from all quarters. Without submitting any concrete plan of his own, he is said to have asked what sort of international agreement each of his conferees would support. The discussion of cabinet selections had a wider scope, several of his most trusted friends undertaking to canvass the situation in separate conferences at various places in the capital.

Harry M. Daugherty of Ohio who was his pre-convention manager and he has just received a reply confirming the report of the senator's death and saying that his claim would be referred to the bureau of insular affairs which would advise him later.

Rescued Ruler in 1910
Ten years ago McClain, as a marine sergeant on duty at Liang Liang to subdue a Moro uprising, rescued the aged ruler from a party of marines who were treating him without consideration for his royal estate. McClain said he carried the sultan to the royal grass bed chamber, made him comfortable and forgot the incident. But the sultan remembered it and a few days later assembled the head men of the tribe and proclaimed the adoption of his big white benefactor as a son.

No white sultan is dead leaving several pearl fisheries, many groves of coconut palms and a harem in addition to the royal palace of grass that covers two acres. McClain wrote the war department for information concerning his title to the property which he seeks to secure except the harem. For that he makes no claim—he is married.

SELECTION OF A JURY COMPLETED
MARION, Ill., Dec. 7.—The selection of a jury was completed here early tonight for the trial of Settimo Desantis and Frank Bi-nacci miners charged with first degree murder in connection with the death of Amiel Calcuterra, 14 years old and Tony Hemphill, 17, both of West Frankfort, Ill., whose bodies were found near Royallton, Ill., with the throats cut on August 4 last. Hemphill had also been shot. Taking of testimony will start tomorrow morning. The election of eight jurors from a special venire of 50 men occupied all of today. The other four were chosen yesterday. The panel consists of ten farmers and two merchants. The murders led to the rioting at West Frankfort and court officials have taken precautions to prevent any possible outbreaks here, the attendance however, during the two days the trial has been in progress has been small.

TRY TO SAVE LIFE OF DEFORMED GIRL
Joliet, Ill., Dec. 7.—Mary Zombek, 19 years old who lived 17 years in a cellar where she had been relegated by her parents because she was deformed, has a fighting chance to regain her health physicians said today as they prepared to operate on the girl. The gland of a monkey will be inserted in the neck of the deformed girl. The operation will be performed tomorrow morning.

LOOK FOR NEW PEACE LEAGUE
Berlin, Dec. 7.—Vorwaerts, the socialist organ representing the largest party in Germany, discussing the withdrawal of Argentina from the assembly, expresses belief that this action presages the dissolution of the league of nations in its present form and the formation of "a new and more democratic league, embracing all civilized nations of the world."

SEIZURE MAIL OF MRS. J. K. HAMON
Chicago, Dec. 7.—Four unidentified men forced an entrance last night into the residence of the widow of the late Jake L. Hamon. The men seized a quantity of personal papers and seventy-five letters received for Mrs. Hamon during her absence at Ardmore, Okla.

Actions of the men indicated the seizure had been carefully planned, police said.

STAND OF ARGENTINE DELEGATION APPROVED
Rio Janeiro, Dec. 7.—Praise for the Argentine delegation at Geneva and criticism of the Brazilian representatives there was voiced by Deputy Nascimento in the chamber of deputies here today. He declared the Argentine mission proposed a step that was supported by Brazilians at The Hague conference in 1907.

Advocate Establishment of Warehouses for Farm Products

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 7.—Establishment of warehouses through the country of sufficient capacity to permit even distribution of farm products during the entire year was advocated here tonight before the annual convention of the American Farm Bureau federation by Asbury Lever, a member of the federal farm loan board as a permanent safeguard for the farmer against big declines in prices. His plan included sale by the government of certificates issued against the warehouse receipts which he said would give ready money to the farm producers.

"Given such a system of marketing," declared Mr. Lever, "the next census will show a drift of cityward."

Governor Harding of the federal reserve board who also addressed the convention said the "present predicament of the farmers caused by depreciation in price was receiving every consideration by the government officials."

He added that no banking system could provide funds to withhold all staple crops from the market without causing financial disaster, and advocated cooperation between farmer, merchant and banker as the solution of the present situation.

In addition to advocating the warehouse plan, Mr. Lever suggested the formation of foreign trade corporations under the Edge act, as a relief for the farmers in their present financial situation. The warehouse plan, he said, promised the better permanent benefits for the farmers.

"The present lack of a system for financing marketing," he said, "forces seventy five per cent of staple agricultural products upon the market in four months with the resultant autumnal 'dip' in farm prices."

"What we must have is a piece of credit machinery peculiarly adapted to the handling of paper with maturity which synchronizes with the period of growth and distribution. The plan involves first the standardization of staple agricultural products of a warehouse character into grades and classes second, the building up under federal, state, or both, regulation and inspection of a system of bonded warehouses for such products, third, the issuance of uniform elevator or warehouse receipts; fourth, the pooling receipts of these warehouse receipts in the hands of a government appointee and fifth, the issuance against these pooled white house receipts of a certificate, debenture or bond and the selling of the same to the investing public at such rates of interest as such collateral will demand."

MARINE SERGEANT INHERITS ISLAND IN SOUTH SEAS

Harem is Included in Legacy Bequeathed by the Sultan

NEW RULER IS ALREADY MARRIED

(By The Associated Press)

WENTZLAU, Mass., Dec. 7.—The palm trees of Liang Liang, a small island south of the Philippines, are ready to wave a welcome and 500 dusky natives await the chance to jabber a greeting to a sergeant of the United States marines whom they regard as their sultan, according to a war department announcement that Robert A. McClain, a machinist of this town, thinks applies to him.

The war department announcement was in the form of an inquiry for Robert A. McClain, ex-marine, who saw service at Liang Liang in 1910.

McClain wrote the department that he was the man referred to and he has just received a reply confirming the report of the sultan's death and saying that his claim would be referred to the bureau of insular affairs which would advise him later.

While the house committee was acting, Senator King, Democrat of Utah, introduced a bill proposing to suspend immigration for a period of six months. This proposal has the support of other senators who believe that congress should not act hastily in framing immigration bills, but should put up the bars for a short period while it is assessing the whole situation and drafting bills to meet it.

Senator King also offered a measure today calling on the secretary of labor for a report on the disposition of appropriations made for enforcement of the law against alien anarchists and for the enforcement of the immigration law.

CANADA SHIRS LARGE AMOUNT OF WHEAT HERE

Over Four Million Bushels Entering Wheat in Before Congress Takes Action

Fort William, Ont., Dec. 7.—Fifteen ships carrying 4,465,000 bushels of Canadian wheat have left here during the last twenty-four hours for United States ports principally Buffalo, New York.

Exports from the elevators here and at Port Arthur which together have received 73,748,000 bushels, totalled 45,420,000 bushels up to December 3, more than twenty times the total last year. These shipments with those of the last day and 5,000,000 bushels more than can be placed aboard ships now in the harbor before navigation closes are expected to about 56,000,000 bushels.

M. N. Patterson, former member of the Canadian board expressed the opinion today that the large shipments now being made are a result of efforts by Canadians to dispose of as much of their wheat as possible before any action is taken by the United States, either by the way of import duties on wheat, or flour or by an embargo.

STOLE TWO FORMER CHIEF'S REVOLVERS
Chicago, Dec. 7.—Two revolvers, prized by the late Chief of Police Herman F. Schuetzler and valued as keepsakes by his widow, stolen from her home here last night were more treasured than $5,000 worth of valuables, which burglars took, Mrs. Schuetzler said today. One of the weapons was taken from the notorious car barn bandits by the chief in the battle that first made him famous as a police officer. The other was a pearl handled gun presented to him by friends in the department, she explained.

CAPTAIN IN U. S. ARMY WAS SPY FOR GERMANY IN WAR

Made Sensational Disclosures Police Say

DESERTED AFTER WAR ENDED

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Sensational disclosures of his mission to this country as a spy, by the German government was given in an alleged confession by John Willers, formerly captain in Company I, 48th United States Infantry, alleged thief and deserter, after his arrest here tonight charged with absconding with $5,000 of his company funds on December 29, 1918. His regiment was then stationed at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C.

Willers, the police said, recited how he was sent to the United States as one of the 200 cadets trained in the acts of espionage to enlist in the American army. On his arrival he went to Albany where he enlisted as a private. He said his military aptitude won him rapid promotion and his knowledge of English enabled him to obtain a commission.

Willers said he had not been sent across the ocean and while in this country his instructions were "to act the part of a loyal American" and to take no action until he reached the war zone.

"What was your plan after reaching the other side?" he was asked.

"I could lead the company to slaughter," the police say he replied.

"You also would be killed," he was reminded.

"What of that? Thousands of better men died that way."

While being questioned at the police station the police say, Willers remarked that they would be surprised if they knew "the number of officials at Washington during the war who were employed by Germany as spies."

"Are they still there?" he was asked.

"That I don't know," he said to have answered. "But there were many of them during the war."

The 48th infantry was still at Camp Sevier when the armistice was signed, and his usefulness as a spy at an end Willers told the police he decided to become a deserter and to take the funds of his company.

From Chicago he roamed about the country, at various times in his travels trying unsuccessfully to get a passport to Germany.

RESOLUTION TO REPEAL ALL WAR TIME LEGISLATION

Report Favorably on Adoption of Volstead Resolution

CERTAIN LAWS ARE EXEMPTED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The Volstead resolution to repeal war time laws was favorably reported today by the house judiciary committee with an amendment exempting the war finance corporation from repeal in addition to the Lever food control bill, District of Columbia rent bill and trading with the enemy acts, and those measures authorizing the issuance of liberty and victory bonds, all of which were specifically exempted in the resolution as introduced.

Mr. Volstead said he expected the resolution would be considered in the house before the end of the week. The rules committee, he added, will be asked to give the measure preference and to agree to a provision for limited debate.

The war finance corporation is still in effect, although the corporation which functioned under its provisions has practically suspended operations. Possibility that congress may revive the war finance board to afford relief to farmer and business interests has led the committee to recommend that the act be exempted from the repeal resolution.

ENDORSE REVIVAL OF WAR FINANCE CORPORATION
Memphis, Dec. 7.—Revival of the war finance corporation was endorsed at the conference here today of bankers, merchants and planters from all of the cotton growing states as a means of immediately remedying present depressed conditions in the cotton market. Resolutions were adopted by the conference to perfect plans to bring about a drastic curtailment in cotton production next year as a move to permanently stabilize the industry.

WOULD TAKE STEPS TO RESTORE NORMAL BUSINESS CONDITIONS

Congress Will Consider Methods for the Aiding of Commerce and Industry—Many Proposals Are Offered For Obtaining Relief—May Investigate Unemployment

Relief—May Investigate Unemployment

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Congressional consideration of aiding and restoring normal business conditions appeared in the offing tonight with the announcement that majority members of the ways and means committee would meet in conference tomorrow to discuss a program with respect to commerce and industry. The enormous number of bills, dealing with farming and industry, presented yesterday and today, together with an apparent desire of leaders to do something for business generally, made it appear certain that congressional attention would be turned to business problems, once the appropriation bills are out of the way.

Leaders in the senate and the house do not believe that actual enactment of any such legislation can be accomplished during the present brief session but they are evidently agreed that the foundations should be laid thru committee consideration for prompt action after March 4 next.

Have Many Proposals.
The ways and means committee will have before it a wide range of proposals, for bills already dropped in the senate and house hoppers include measures providing all the way from far-reaching tariff reforms and agricultural relief to aid or protection to limited groups of industries.

Some of the measures submitted would direct congressional investigation of unemployment. Among such measures was a resolution presented today by Representative Mason, Republican of Illinois calling for a series of house committee investigations and a conference of governors and federal officials to ascertain facts and figures and make recommendations. Mr. Mason's resolution sets forth that there were now more than 2,000,000 persons in the United States in enforced idleness.

Would Deduct Income Taxes.
Permission to deduct income taxes paid this year from next year's assessable income was proposed as a business relief measure by Representative A. German, Republican of New Jersey who declared that the burden of taxes should not be further increased by taxing money already paid or to be paid into the federal treasury.

Bills were offered in the senate in large numbers today with the general aim of stimulating business and relieving agricultural, manufacturing, mining or exporting.

The program of Senator Capper, Republican of Kansas, for farm relief bills found expression in several measures to regulate grain exchanges, while Senator McCumber, Republican of North Dakota introduced bills to prohibit the importation for one year of grain and grain products and livestock and other food commodities and the appointment by the president of a commission to prepare for congress a general system of co-operative marketing.

All of the measures dealing with relief for farmers were designed, their proponents declared, to aid the consumer as well as the producer, but the urban members were not overlooking opportunities to render assistance by bills where possible to the businesses of finance and manufacturing thru changes in the federal reserve act and banking laws.

LEGION WILL ASK FOR HOSPITALS
$85,000,000 FOR HOSPITALS
St. Louis, Dec. 7.—The American Legion will ask congress to appropriate $85,000,000 for establishing hospitals to care for wounded veterans of the recent war, according to F. W. Galbraith, the national commander, who arrived here last night to participate in a celebration arranged by the local posts of the legion.

The national commander described conditions surrounding the treatment of these men as "bad."

"Committees visiting hospitals in various states have reported that the food and quarters of the men were 'unfit for dogs,'" he said. "One hospital in Missouri was so designated, as was one in Illinois."

SETTLED BY THE PEOPLE
"What will the senate do with the league," is the question some ill-informed people are asking. It is not up to the senate. The people decided that question when they defeated by an unprecedented majority the man who said he favored going into the league. So far as the United States is concerned, the league question is settled. The Republicans stand pledged to promote peace and disarmament, but they are instructed by the people to keep the United States out of the league of nations.

We must pay interest on the bonds we issued to raise money to loan to Great such exchange have not been completed.

It remained for the New York World to publish a despatch from London a few days later stating that those negotiations had come to a complete standstill, because of certain stipulations which England insisted should be inserted in the exchange agreement. Many times during the war and throughout the peace conference, authoritative information of what was transpiring could not be obtained in Washington, and our first intimation of the facts came from foreign sources. The same policy of secret diplomacy appears to be still in force.
On March 13 last, the secretary of the treasury sent a letter to the senate giving the amount of paid and accrued interest on foreign bonds. The same association again ventured to ask a question, referring to the letter of March 13. "We will highly appreciate it if you will furnish this office with an extension of those figures up to the end of the calendar year 1920; that is, the total accrued interest on December 31, 1920, and the total interest payments up to that date."
It took the treasury department ten days to frame the following reply: "I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 16th instant, requesting certain information in connection with the loans made by the United States to foreign governments. The information which you request, in so far as it is available, set forth in the secretary's annual report for the fiscal year 1920, which is now on the press. As soon as the report is available for distribution, a copy will be sent you."
Apparently this means that information as to the nation's finances must be gleaned from annual reports, and that after the report referred to is distributed silence will pervade the department for another year. Fortunately, March 4 will see the inauguration of a government of, for, and by the people, in place of a government of, for, and by a cloistered body of White House sycophants who lose their patience every time an American taxpayer seeks to discover whether or not his country is going to collect $10,000,000,000 of outstanding bills.

SMOKE LA COX CIGARS SHOULD COMBINE FOR MUTUAL BENEFIT
CHICAGO.—(By the A. P.)—Co-operation between the paper manufacturer, ink manufacturer and printer for their mutual benefit was urged here today by Floyd E. Barmeyer, chemist of the American Printing Ink Co., at a convention of the American Pulp and Paper Mill Superintendents' Association. Mr. Barmeyer said that to the best of his knowledge "there has never been any real attempt on the part of these three industries to get together as industries and study the relations between ink, paper and press."
Standardization of materials entering into the production of printing was an advantage Mr. Barmeyer saw resulting from the cooperation he proposed. He said it would be impossible ever to get an absolute standardization of all materials but he said, "We can at least attempt to standardize and see how near we can approach to the ideal."
"We will always have individuality in our manufactured product, whether it is printed matter, paper or ink, he added. "But it is only by standardization that we can become efficient. From the cost standpoint, it is only by standardization of our products to as few different lines as possible that the paper manufacturer and printing ink manufacturer can hope to increase their production to such a point as to reduce the cost of their finished products."
Mr. Barmeyer proposed that representatives of the various paper, ink and printing organizations in all the large cities formulate a plan to study these questions.
"The only way in which a matter of this nature could be started," he said, "would be thru the various organizations which represent the different branches of the allied printing trades."

OLD JACKSONVILLE TOM
By Ensley Moore
(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

I became acquainted with Tom about the time of his graduation from Illinois College, in 1862—we were brothers in Sigma Pi society.
We became better acquainted in 1863, when he was in Lathrop's store, on the east side of the Square. We met specially at the Virginia Fair of that year, and had an amusing time.
He had the entree of our house, and he came there not only to eat at Father's board, but to "bunk" with me. We were boys, interested in girls, interested in the Union cause, interested in our churches, he longer than I. He was the same open-faced, open-hearted young fellow or "boy," as he was a man; and we "took sweet counsel together."
Almost before he could remember Tom had been bereft of his sweet young mother—he, the only child—and he and his father were loyal and faithful to her dear memory all the days of their lives. How he spoke of her is not to be told herein.
But she was a guardian angel to her son till the glad, glad day, last week, when they once more met where they shall never be parted again.
Tom went to the War in the summer of 1864, and I went up to Camp Butler and saw him before "the boys" were sent down into Southwest Missouri.
They enlisted for the "100 day service," but five months went by before Col. Crampton brought his fine company back to their homes.
Tom was hearty, handsome, and smiling still.
So we kept on seeing the girls and being friends. How could it be otherwise?
The War clouds rolled away. Victory gave glory to all who had worn the blue, and Tom studied medicine here and went to New York to medical college. I was there in the fall of 1868, and Tom took me over to Brooklyn to hear Henry Ward Beecher tell about "The man who would be rich." That winter I spent in Philadelphia, and I invited Tom to come over and visit me; and, better yet, and visit some Quaker girls, and we had a doubly good time.
Early in the year 1869 I went over to New York, at Tom's bidding, and we saw something of the great city, we "bunked" together again as we had in Philadelphia and at home; and one afternoon he took me to a matinee of the Philharmonica society—that which is to be here next spring. Madame De La Grange "Honorary member"—was the vocal soloist. It was then the 27th season of the organization. The program is before me now. I would gladly go to the coming feast if only for Tom's sake.
So we had that closer comradeship which comes with association away from home and amid new scenes.
The years rolled away, I married as did Tom later on, and we kept up the acquaintance and social meeting. We were trustees of Illinois college together; members of the Alumni society together, together at Sig reunions.
People thought we had grown old but it was the boys who met each other; lately we met several times and I was especially glad of it, after Tom had gone ahead.
I knew Tom's good heart, his fine mind and his lofty soul. I thought him the best "boy" here. It was not as the good physician, even, that I knew Thomas J. Pitner, but as friend. And now they have met—mother and son—in "That beautiful land."
Where no storms ever beat on the glittering strand
While the years of eternity roll.
And they know
"Oh, how sweet it will be in that beautiful land,
So free from all sorrow and pain with songs on our lips,
and with harps in our hands,
To meet one another again."

Oil and Grease Two Most Important Cold Weather Factors
It's Poor Economy to Neglect Your Car at Any Time, but More so in Cold Weather
If the parts of car carrying oil and grease are not properly cleaned out and new applied cold weather soon hardens the summer's accumulation and you suddenly will find you've been running with practically no lubrication whatever—a dangerous thing.
If you intend running your car this winter, by all means have it first gone over and every part carrying oil or grease thoroughly cleaned and new proper cold weather oils and greases put in. This is not at all an expensive job, but is highly important to a car owner.
Also let us see that the radiator is not leaking, and supply it with the necessary alcohol for winter.

CHICAGO'S PENNY LUNCH IS ENORMOUS SUCCESS

Low Priced Lunch Rooms Established in City's Elementary Schools Have Thousands of Customers Daily—Board of Education Donates all Maintenance Cost.

Chicago—Judging by their patronage, the 3c and 5c meals put up by the Chicago board of education are making an enormous success.

The city's "penny lunch" business runs from forty to fifty thousand customers a day. Sales, measured in pennies and nickels, amount daily to between $4000 and $5000.

"We have to chase the children away," remarked Dr. Frank Bruner, director of special schools under the board of education, who has charge of this work. "Often we have to stand at the door and protect the lunch rooms so they won't be overrun."

Dr. Bruner said that penny lunches had been established in 57 of the city's elementary schools. Their object, he observed, is to provide substantial food at the least cost for children coming from homes where there is real necessity. Lunchrooms therefore have been opened in districts where, as a general thing, the people are not as well to do.

"For five cents," Dr. Bruner said, "the menu runs something like this:

Soup.
Bread.
Milk or cocoa.
Fruit or pudding.

"The bill of fare at 3c drops the milk. And then a youngster can spend only a penny if he wants to, buying any one of these articles for it. Or if he is not blessed with wealth and yet has more than a penny, he can for two cents purchase a meat ball, beans, spaghetti, or rice."

"The board of education is spending $150,000 a year to provide these meals," added Dr. Bruner. "The board donates all service and equipment. That includes the rooms, cooks, light, gas—the entire maintenance cost. What the children pay goes into the food. We buy at wholesale and the receipts cover the purchase of the food."

In addition to penny lunches the board of education supplies a bite to eat at the morning recess at 10:30 in all elementary schools. This sells for a penny and consists of a sandwich with filling of jelly, jam, syrup, peanut butter or oleo, or else a dish of porridge.

Then there are 30 or so high schools. These have their cafeterias. They are run on a different principle, the object being to provide food for students coming from a distance. Dr. Bruner said that in all cases they were self sustaining. In some the cafeterias are operated on a private concession, in others by the board of education.

FAILED TO RECOGNIZE PROMINENT JURIST

Chicago Saloonkeeper Did Not Recognize Judge Kenesaw M. Landis When Summoned to Federal Court Room.

Chicago—The features of Kenesaw M. Landis, the white haired federal jurist who recently was chosen supreme dictator of organized baseball, have been known to newspaper readers for years, but at least one Chicago man failed to recognize the judge one day recently.

The occasion was the summoning of 72 saloonkeepers to the federal building to face injunction suits brought by the state to close their places of business under the prohibition law.

One the saloon men disembarked from an elevator and walked up to a stranger.

Where's this guy Landis' court?" the saloon man asked.

"In there," was the monosyllabic reply.

"Well, he's got me up here, and they tell me he's a tough old fellow," said the talkative saloonman.

"I've heard so," was the dry rejoinder.

The saloonkeepers passed on, and were followed shortly by the stranger, who mounted the bench and rapped for order.

WOMEN ARE LICENSED AS M. E. PREACHERS

Fifteen Have Been Given Licenses Since Right Was Granted Last May By General Conference of Church.

CHICAGO. — (By Associated Press.)—Fifteen women have been licensed as preachers in the Methodist Episcopal church since this right was granted last May by the General Conference of the church, Miss M. Madeline Southard reported here today. Miss Southard is president of an association of women preachers in the United States and Canada that represents 15 denominations. She is director of evangelism of the Epworth League. "The first woman preacher to be licensed in the Methodist Episcopal church under this ruling," Miss Southard said, "was Miss D. Willia Caffrey of Wenatchee, Wash. She came from a family of preachers and at the age of nine wanted to preach. She had been acting as associate pastor of the First Methodist church at Wenatchee. Her pastor who was at the General Conference telegraphed word of its decision, and she was licensed as a local preacher within two hours."

"The same evening Miss Winifred Willard was licensed by the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Denver. At the time she was 2,000 miles away in the east, but the enterprising Denverites called a meeting as soon as they heard the news and took action."

"The first woman licensed in New England was Mrs. Kate Morrison Cooper. For the past three years she had been pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Portsmouth, N. H. She was licensed June 10."

"Ten days later Miss Mabelle H. Whitney was licensed at Pittsfield, Va. She was a supply pastor and previously had served as pastor of a Congregational church in Maine. Ten days later Miss Capitola B. Loocher was licensed by the Proctorsville, Vt., M. E. church, and in a week another Vermont woman, Miss Ellen H. Wagner, a public school teacher, was licensed at Fulton."

Miss Southard herself was the seventh woman preacher licensed.

"It is not an easy task to keep informed on how many women have been licensed," she said, "when they are being licensed right along in so many sections."

"There is no doubt, Miss Southard added, that ordination will be granted Methodist women when the next General Conference meets in 1924."

INCREASED STATE TAX RATE NOT NECESSARY

Administration Officials Announce No Increase in Rate Is Necessary When Rate Fixing Board Meets Next Month.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(By the Associated Press.)—Administration officials announced today it will not be necessary to increase the state tax rate when the rate fixing board meets here early next month. The Budget Division in the Department of Finance has been working overtime for several weeks, on the second state budget under the Civil Administrative Code. The budget must be ready for submission to Governor Lowden by January 1.

Omar H. Wright, director of finance, said today:

"Seventy-five per cent of the requests for appropriations to be made of the next General Assembly have been practically agreed upon between the Department of Finance and the heads of the various state activities."

"Governor Lowden has insisted that appropriation requests must be kept to the minimum and each item must be carefully considered in its relation to the necessary needs of the state. While the new budget will provide for moderate salary adjustments and the growing needs of the state and while the total appropriations to be recommended to the next legislature will doubtless exceed those of two years ago, the excellent condition of the state treasury will more than take care of the increase."

"Last year the state tax rate was 40 cents on the $100 valuation. This was a reduction of 20 per cent from the previous year and 35 per cent from the amount fixed two years ago. Only 14 cents of last year's rate went into the general revenue fund used for general state purposes, while 23 cents went to the common school and University of Illinois funds and three cents to the new waterway fund. Any further reduction this year must necessarily come out of the revenue fund but with a cash balance in that fund in the State Treasury of approximately $16,000,000 and with no abnormal appropriation needs of the state for the next biennium, it will be possible to reduce still further the rate for general state purposes and yet leave an excellent working balance in the treasury."

Both series are to be dated December 15 and one is payable on June 15, bearing interest at 5 1/2 per cent, and the other is payable on December 15, 1921 with interest at 6 per cent. "I'M HAPPY AS A LARK" STATES MRS. HAMBLIN

In Almost Continuous Pain for Seven Years, Galesburg Woman at Last Restored to Splendid Health and Says Tanlac Deserves the Credit.

"Tanlac has built me up to where I am like a different woman and have actually gained twenty-five pounds," said Mrs. G. B. Hamblin, of 653 East Main street, Galesburg, Ill.

"I had hardly had a day from pain in seven years when I began taking Tanlac. I was so sick and run-down I hardly had enough strength to prepare a meal and was thin and pale. Everything I ate soured and bloated me up with gas till my heart would palpitate something awful.

"My nerves were so unstrung a knock at the door made me jump like I had been shot at. I got so little sleep at night I always got up in the mornings feeling tired and worn out and had to lie down and rest most of the day. I tried so many medicines without getting relief I became discouraged and never expected to be a well woman again.

"But two days of the Tanlac treatment quieted my nerves and I began to sleep better. Within a week I was able to eat a good meal. I gained in weight until I now weigh a hundred and fifty-five pounds, whereas I never did weigh more than one hundred and twenty before I took Tanlac.

"But the best of it is I am feeling so much better in every way. I sleep like a child all night and get up in the mornings feeling as happy as a lark. My nerves are as strong as can be and nothing ever bothers me now. I am not troubled with gas or palpitation of the heart any more and in fact am as well as I ever was in my life. In view of the fact that this is considered the largest livestock exhibit in the world, the local exhibitors are justly proud of their record, and the people of Scott county are glad that there are men and boys in the county who are able to compete with the best.

The funeral of Michael Guinan, whose death occurred Saturday at his home near Alsey, was held at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Mark's Catholic church, Rev. Father Bell officiating. The deceased, who was 63 years of age, had been in failing health for several years. He was a resident of Scott county all his life, having been born and reared in the Alsey community. He was united in marriage to Miss Mary Ryan of Alsey, and they were the parents of three children, Margaret O'Brien and Nellie, who preceded their father in death a number of years ago. Mrs. Guinan passed away a number of years since and the deceased united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth O'Donnell of Alsey, who together with four children, Teresa, Bessie, Frank and Jesse, survives.

The deceased was engaged in farming until failing health compelled him to retire from active life. He was prosperous in his chosen profession and during his long and useful life won the confidence and esteem of all who knew him.

Among those from a distance attending the funeral were Mrs. Carl Mandeville and Mrs. Jerry Flynn, Jacksonville; John Ryan of Beardstown; Mrs. Kate Bandy, Granite City; James Guinan and sister, Miss Jennie, of Chapin; Miss Nellie Thorne and Miss Irene Connelly, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Varley, Beardstown.

Edward Pieper, daughter Mary Louice and son Edward, returned the first of the week from St. Louis, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pieper. Mrs. Pieper returned Tuesday night from the Missouri city.

Mrs. John Thompson was a visitor in St. Louis Tuesday. Miss Helen Chamberlain arrived Monday from Galva and is a guest at the home of the Misses Wilson. On Wednesday she will leave for the wholesale market in St. Louis. Miss Chamberlain will be remembered as trimmer in the millinery store of Miss Pearl Wilson last winter.

CHARLES S. MAGILL IS FOUND NOT GUILTY

Jury Returns Verdict of Not Guilty in Case of Former County Commissioner Charged With Confidence Game—Two Other Indictments Pending—Docket Entries.

After more than four hours' deliberation, the jury in the case of Charles S. Magill, former county commissioner charged with operating a confidence game, returned a verdict finding the defendant not guilty. There are two other indictments pending against Mr. Magill and the circuit court will today take up the case under the second indictment. Sheriff Weatherford was last night ordered to produce this morning a common law venire of twenty men from the county from which will be chosen the jury for the second case.

The Magill case was called for trial Tuesday morning and the task of securing a jury occupied a comparatively short time, the necessary number of jurors being sworn in before noon. The taking of evidence began when court convened at 1:30, and the case went to the jury at 3:55. The verdict was reached at 8:45 last night.

Three indictments of false pretenses against Mr. Magill were quashed by Judge Smith last week, and because of this action of the court the verdict reached last night was forecast by many.

Mr. Magill is represented by J. Marshall Miller and J. O. Priest as attorneys, while State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson was assisted in the prosecution by Attorney W. N. Hairgrove.

It was the effort of the prosecution to prove that on Nov. 24, 1919, some days after his term of office expired, Mr. Magill collected from W. E. Masters of Murrayville the sum of $290.65 for oil spread on the roads of Morcan county. It was alleged that this money was deposited by Mr. Magill to the credit of his private bank account and was not paid to the county until some time in March, 1920.

Among witnesses who testified yesterday on behalf of the state were W. E. Masters, J. C. Wyatt, C. N. Wyatt, a former county commissioner, and George Wheeler, a present county commissioner. William Self, deputy county treasurer, was the sole witness for the defense.

The jury included H. B. Jaeger, Charles Howard, J. E. Ballard, Casper Blimling, Harrison Davenport, James Pfeil, N. Sargent, Roy Clark, Fred Munham, Charles Reinhart, Herbert Cassell and Clyde D. Black.

Docket entries made during the day were as follows:

Common Law
In the suit of J. F. Kennedy vs. Palmyra Light, Heat & Power Company, ejectment. The suit was dismissed at cost of defendant by agreement of parties.

In the suit of E. A. Deatherage and J. C. Deatherage vs. Palmyra Light, Heat & Power company, ejectment, demurrer confessed leave to plaintiff to amend declaration, same filed, cause continued for service.

The suit of Vernon E. Rexroat vs. John D. Cain, trespass, was dismissed by the plaintiff.

In the assumpsit suit of Walter Fearnsworth vs. Hettie B. Johnson, demurrer to third plea sustained, demurrer to second, fourth and fifth pleas overruled.

Chancery
In the divorce suit of Henry G. Hullinger vs. Margaret A. Hullinger, decree was rendered and approved and cause stricken.

ONE INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. A. F. Dowdall Receives Severe Injuries When Car in Which She is Riding Collides and Overturns—Is at Passavant Hospital.

Mrs. A. F. Dowdall is a patient at Passavant hospital suffering from a compound fracture of the collar bone and severe cuts and bruises as the result of an automobile accident which occurred about 5:30 o'clock Tuesday evening.

The accident occurred at the intersection of West State and Prairie streets. Mrs. Dowdall was in a Buick car driven by Mr. Dowdall. They were driving west on West State street enroute to Winchester to attend a social function.

John Rausche, who is employed by John T. Walbridge, contractor at the Filtration and Power plant was driving a Ford south on North Prairie street. As the cars reached the intersection and it became apparent they were in danger of colliding, each tried to avoid the accident.

Mr. Dowdall said he turned to the right hoping to avoid hitting the Ford. However, he said the Ford struck the hind wheel of his car, causing it to skid and overturn.

Rausche said that as he came to West State street he saw the other car coming and turned his car to the west in State street to avoid the collision. According to his story Mr. Dowdall's car skidded as he tried to avoid hitting the Ford and he tried to straighten it out it skidded again and he was unable to avoid striking the rear wheel.

Then the Dowdall car, Mr. Rausche said, headed for the south side of West State street, but turned before reaching the curb and hit it broadside, the car overturning.

Mr. Dowdall was thrown clear of the car when it struck the curb but Mrs. Dowdall was pinned underneath. Mr. Rausche assisted Mr. Dowdall in righting the car and Mrs. Dowdall was taken from underneath in an unconscious condition.

She was rushed to Passavant hospital where Dr. Black attended her. Examination revealed a compound fracture of the collar bone, severe cuts about the head and face and bruises on the body. She also was suffering greatly from shock. If her condition is improved today an X-ray examination will be made to ascertain if there are internal injuries.

Both cars were damaged in the accident. One of the wheels was demolished on the Buick and was otherwise damaged. The Ford has a broken steering rod, a damaged fender and the front axle is also bent.

The Most Precious Gift

Only with it can one enjoy the blessings of life. There is only one way of keeping such a body. "KEEPING FIT," that is by keeping in REPAIR.

The successful farmer examines and repairs his machinery frequently, that he may get the best "RESULTS" from its use.

The auto is kept in repair that its use may add pleasure to the family life.

But, of the HUMAN MACHINERY, what?

It may fall to pieces, be racked by pains and become a burden, and finally join in that great phalanx, 500,000 strong, who march to untimely graves every year—Who might live if they would just value the HUMAN MACHINERY as much as the auto, the plow, the horse.

Now is the time of year to have that body gone over and small defects repaired.

TRINITY GUILD WOMEN CONDUCT CHRISTMAS SALE

Parish House a Busy Place Tuesday—Many Fancy and Useful Articles Displayed.

The parish house of Trinity Episcopal church presented a very festive appearance Tuesday when the doors were opened to visitors at 10 o'clock. It was the occasion of the annual Christmas sale given by the ladies of the Trinity guild.

Scores of useful and handsome articles were attractively displayed on the various tables scattered about the room. Many times during the morning and afternoon was the room filled with visitors, many of whom departed with packages containing articles purchased at the sale. Everything sold rapidly, and the ladies cleared a goodly sum as a reward for their efforts to make the event a success.

Those in charge of the various tables were as follows:

Home made rugs—Mrs. Charles Brown.

Aprons—Mrs. E. F. Hatfield, Mrs. H. M. Andre, Mrs. Edgerton.

Fancy work—Mrs. Andrew Russell, Mrs. Elizabeth Raynor, Mrs. William Capps, Mrs. Wallbridge.

Delicatessen table—Mrs. Charles Fawcett, Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. Saunders.

An attractive feature of the sale was a memory table, in charge of Mrs. Dewey. Several former members of the guild who reside at a distance from Jacksonville, were asked by letter to contribute to this memory fund. From these non-residents, Mrs. Dewey received over sixty dollars in checks.

During the afternoon tea was served at little tables and numbers of visitors took this opportunity to spend a social time together. Those who pointed the tea were: Mrs. U. G. Woodman, Mrs. Elizabeth Raynor, Mrs. J. G. Ames, Mrs. Parker Doan and Mrs. McNeal. The young ladies of the church served the tea. The president of the guild, Mrs. George Matthews, was everywhere during the sale, welcoming the visitors and exercising a general oversight of the entire affair.

VOCATIONAL COLLEGE HAS HAD LARGE GROWTH

Simmons College at Boston, Mass., Has Long List of Students Seeking Entrance—Starts Campaign for Enlarged Endowment Fund.

BOSTON, Mass.—By The Associated Press.—The foresight of John Simmons, a Boston merchant who died fifty years ago, in providing in his will for the founding of a vocational college for women is declared by officials of Simmons College to have been amply demonstrated by the fact that the college now has a long waiting list of students seeking entrance and an equally long list of employers waiting for its graduates. In connection with the fiftieth anniversary of John Simmons' bequest, the college has just started a campaign for an enlarged endowment fund.

Simmons College was not formally opened until 1902. "In eighteen years," a college official said today, "it has outgrown the resources which its founder provided merely because it is offering a kind of education which the country very much needs."

With very little schooling and typically a self-made man, John Simmons was known chiefly as the originator in New England of ready-made clothing. He was a man of few words and he said little about his plan of founding a college. It is known, however, that in a period when women were supposed to have no vocation outside the home except teaching, he held the view that the capacity of women to profit by training was limited only by their opportunities.

The conditions which followed the Civil War re-enforced his view. He saw many daughters, wives and mothers forced by the death of men in the war to accept miserably paid and often menial work and he realized that this was largely because they were totally untrained and could do no one thing well.

John Simmons believed in the insurance of vocational training for women. Whether a woman marries or does not, he held, a first rate training for earning a livelihood is her best insurance against disaster; until she marries she can be self-supporting, and if after marriage, because of death, sickness or calamity in her family, she is compelled to return to work, she will be ready to meet the emergency.

Simmons College, in addition to its courses directly designed to train women to be experts in science, business, social work, librarianship, household management and other professions, in which at its opening it was the pioneer, requires that its students spend at least half of their time on non-technical subjects, such as English, history, sciences and language.

WILL OF MRS. VERTREES IS FILED FOR PROBATE

The will of the late Mrs. Amelia D. Vertrees of Murrayville has been filed for record in the office of County Clerk G. L. Riggs.

The document bears the date of April, 1905, and the signature was witnessed by James K. Cunningham and James E. Osborne.

After providing for the payment of just debts and funeral expenses, the testatrix bequeathed to her daughter, Sada Amelia Kennedy, the home place in Murrayville. It is provided that Charles M. Vertrees, husband of the testatrix, shall have control of the home place during his natural lifetime, but the daughter is to have the use of the property until her father's death. All personal property is bequeathed to Mrs. Kennedy. Charles M. Vertrees is named executor of the will.

A codicil to the will was executed on July 10, 1917, with James L. Wyatt and James Cunningham as the witnesses to the signature. In this codicil the executrix bequeathed to her grandson, Donald Vertrees Kennedy, $1,000, and James E. Osborne is designated as the child's guardian until he reaches the age of 21 years. Various bequests of personal property to the sum of $100 is bequeathed to the Presbyterian Woman's Foreign Missionary Mission board. All remaining property is bequeathed to the daughter, Mrs. Sada Kennedy. James E. Osborne is named as executor of the codicil.

Motor Truck Lowers Farm Costs

THE farmer of the Middle West is a business man who utilizes every labor or time-saving device to increase his profits. That's why the farmer is coming to be the heaviest buyer of motor trucks.

At seeding time he hauls his seed to the field, thus economizing hand labor; at harvest time he hauls his grain, potatoes, and other produce, to market, and distance being a less prohibitive factor, is able to secure better prices; and all through the year he hauls his live-stock and chickens to market, and is able to deliver them in better condition, and with a minimum of shrinkage.

These are a few reasons why the farmer finds the motor truck profitable.

It must be apparent, then, that in no other part of the nation is rural distribution of petroleum products quite so important as in the states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). These are the farming states which supply not only the Middle West but the entire nation with food. The ten states served by this Company are well termed the bread-basket of the nation.

To be of economic service to the farmer, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) maintains throughout the territory it serves a complete chain of bulk stations, with tank wagons for delivery throughout the rural districts. The farmer has come to know that he can depend upon this service even under most trying conditions. That busy, dark green tank wagon serves the farmer with all the faithfulness with which the milk wagon and the ice wagon serve the flat dweller in the city.

The comprehensive distribution system of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is geared to service at the lowest possible cost. The money thus saved through large scale operation is passed on to the consumer by reasonable tank wagon prices throughout the territory served.

That this complete and highly efficient system of distribution maintained by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is indispensable to the new type of business farmer, no one acquainted with the facts can doubt.

coach of a proposed basket ball team that will come into being with the acquisition of new and larger quarters in the Bridge-water building, which is being placed in proper condition by Mr. Bridgewater for the use of the post. It is a spacious hall with club room attachment, and it will be put into complete use by the time of the next monthly meeting, it having been decided to meet regularly on the first Monday night of each month. There are 156 eligibles in this township for membership in this post, and the membership is 80. It is desired to bring to every world war veteran the advantages and necessity of membership in the American Legion. The plans for acquiring a public memorial building will alone require the influence and membership of ever eligible for months to come to the end that the interests and facilities of the post may be brought to the highest standard in this tremendously patriotic community.

The Culver G. A. R. post held the annual election of officers Saturday afternoon in the city hall, resulting as follows: Commander, A. A. Lorton; senior vice commander, W. H. Boggess; junior vice commander, L. N. Ballard; officer of the day, Capt. Henry Porter; officer of the guard, John Raines; chaplain, Rev. J. T. Green; quartermaster and adjutant, G. L. Adams. There were two deaths during the past year, S. Gropp and William Teter, leaving the roster of membership twenty-four. This is probably the largest membership and the most active G. A. R. post in this section of the state, and they are co-operating in all worthy patriotic endeavors. Individual members are very much interested in the proposed soldier memorial building on Whiteside Park, and suitable action will be taken by the post when the proper time arrives. It is desired that the proposition be fully established for submission at the annual township election next spring.

THE CAPPER BILL AND GRAIN TRADING

L. F. Gates, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, in discussing the proposed legislation against grain exchanges and future trading, says:

"The much-heralded bill against grain exchanges which Senator Capper has for months been advertising in his various farm journals, has, I understand, been made public.

"While purporting to be a taxing measure, it is, of course, not intended to be a revenue producer, but rather intended, thru the imposition of a prohibitory tax to do away with trading in grain for future delivery. While it purports to leave an opportunity for hedging purchases and sales, anyone at all familiar with the grain marketing machinery will realize that the passage of such a bill would lead to the entire elimination of the insurance feature of the grain market and would immediately result in such a widening margin between producer and consumer as merchandising handlers would find it necessary to secure to cover the additional risks of ownership which they would assume.

"Instead of preventing speculation such a provision would necessitate speculation on the part of every grower and handler of grain and its products. It is clear that the proponents of this bill share the general confusion as between gambling and speculation and fail to appreciate that efficiency in service and economy in operation which makes it possible to handle grain from the producer to the consumer on a lower margin of profit for the so-called middleman than prevails in the marketing of any other commodity in general use. It is not generally known that the entire toll on wheat is only from 7 to 10 per cent for all handlers—not for each, but ALL—who handle it between the farm and the foreign market, transportation, of course, not included.

"If there is a desire on the part of the people of this country to eliminate the present system of handling grain and its products and to pay the added cost incident to merchandizing on a general merchandizing basis, those who wish to accomplish this purpose should have to pretend to be desirous of preserving the 'hedging system,' while, as a matter of fact, they are destroying it."

STATE RANKS SECOND IN AMOUNT OF CORN GROWN

Statistics Compiled By Agricultural Statistician Show That Illinois Ranks Second Among States in Quantity of Corn Produced.

By The Associated Press.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Illinois ranks second this year among the states in the amount of corn grown, according to statistics based on the first ten months of 1920 and compiled by S. D. Fessenden, Agricultural Statistician. The preliminary estimates, Mr. Fessenden explained, show a probable corn crop of 302,634,000 bushels. This figure may be slightly changed in the final estimate to be made in December, he said. The crop of this year is slightly larger than that of 1919, but it is not the biggest for the state. Last year's crop was figured at 301,000,000 bushels.

Conditions for the maturing of the crop continued excellent during October, the month being unusually warm and fair and exceedingly favorable for the drying out of the corn and the harvesting of the crop. The average yield an acre about equals a ten year average. Considerable soft and chaffy corn is showing up but a large proportion of the grain seems to be of excellent quality, Mr. Fessenden said. Much of the poorer part of this year's crop has gone into the silos which are well filled.

Mr. Fessenden estimated the yield of corn this year was 34.5 bushels an acre. His reports indicate that seven per cent of the crop of 1919 remained on the farms, while this year it is estimated 9.4 per cent was cut for silage.

It is estimated that the buckwheat crop this year has yielded 18 bushels an acre, producing a crop of 72,000 bushels, about the same as last year and slightly more than a five-year average.

An average of 65 bushels an acre is indicated for the white potato crop, or a production of 3,100,000 bushels, as compared to 3,060,000 bushels last year. It is also estimated that about 12 per cent of the 1920 crop in this state was raised for market purposes.

The estimated sweet potato crop for Illinois this year is 855,000 bushels, or an average yield of 95 bushels an acre. Last year the estimated production was 85,000 bushels. Mr. Fessenden believes 35.1 per cent of the sweet potato crop of Illinois will go to the market.

Fifty per cent more apples were grown this year than last. The 4,943,99 bushel crop of 1919 is compared with 6,300,000 bushels for 1920 of which 73 per cent are looked upon as high medium grade apples.

Tobacco appears to have made an average yield of 759 pounds an acre, or total crop of 525,000 pounds, practically the same as last year. Clover seed has yielded an average of 1.7 bushels an acre; sorghum grain 33 bushels in Illinois compared with 27 bushels in the United States and sorghum syrup 75 gallons an acre in Illinois as against 93.1 in the entire country. Sugar beets raised for sugar only showed a condition of 94 per cent at harvest time thruout the state.

How a prospective mother prepared for baby's coming

Of all the vital adventures in life, the birth of a baby is the climax of nature's most wonderful evolution.

During this period, nature is supposed to be preparing the internal organism of a woman for a safe and speedy delivery; but it is more the exception than the rule when nature, unaided, performs her part at the crisis in a manner to relieve pain and contribute to comfort.

"I was afraid," writes a prospective mother, "until an experienced mother told me about MOTHER'S FRIEND."

"—but now I cannot recommend MOTHER'S FRIEND too highly for I know it helped me wonderfully, and I can almost say my baby was born without pain. At the present time I am using it again, as I do not want to go thru the ordeal without it."

Three generations of prospective mothers have used MOTHER'S FRIEND. When gently applied, during the period of expectancy, it soothes the fine network of nerves, lubricates the broad, flat, abdominal muscles and prepares the way for an easier, quicker and practical delivery.

For valuable booklet—"MOTHERHOOD and The BABY"—free, fill in coupon below and mail direct to the makers of MOTHER'S FRIEND.

WARNING: Avoid using plain oils, greases and substitutes—they act only on the skin and may cause harm without doing good

MOTHER'S FRIEND.

Are You Driving Your Car This Winter?

If so come in and let us advise you on winter care. If you lay up your car, there is but one thing to do. Bring your battery in to us and have us store it for you. We will take care of it for you at a nominal charge, and return it to you in the spring in the best possible condition. If you leave it in the car, it may freeze and a frozen battery is not worth repairing. Our winter storage facilities are complete. Wise motorists have "winter stored" their batteries for many years. They saved money by doing so.

ANNUAL MEETING OF FARM BUREAU HERE WEDNESDAY

Banquet, Then Business For Members
—Vanniman Will Attend Session.

Wednesday will be the biggest day in the year for members of the Morgan County Farm Bureau organization. At noon a banquet will be served to the membership at Central Christian church, after which business of importance will be transacted.

Among the matters to be considered is the change of name of the organization. It was originally organized as the Morgan County Farmers' club, but that name was dropped several years ago, though not officially. There is little doubt but what the members will consent to changing the name to what it is known as now.

A change in the method of electing officers will also be considered. To date the directors have named the officers, but things may be changed so that officers will be chosen at the annual meeting. If this change is agreed upon, the leaders of the Farm Bureau may be named tomorrow.

A committee appointed some time ago to look after the matter of minor changes of the constitution is scheduled to report at the coming meeting. County Agent George B. Kendall will make his yearly report, which is certain to be of interest to all of the members, although the program was not complete today.

It has been announced that Verne Vanniman, assistant state leader of county farm agents, will attend the banquet. Mr. Vanniman is well known to members of the Bureau, having been here on numerous occasions. While reservations for the banquet have not been exceedingly large, a good representation of the membership is expected when the time arrives.

FOURTH INSTALLMENT MUST BE PAID DEC. 15

That is Last Day of Payment of Income and Excess Profit Tax—Must Be in Office by Midnight of That Day to Avoid Penalty.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 4, 1920. "December 15 is the last day for the payment of the fourth installment of the income and excess profit taxes due this year. To avoid penalty, the tax must be in the offices of collectors of internal revenue branch offices by midnight of that date.

"Inquiries reaching the commissioner of internal revenue indicate a belief that taxpayers have ten days grace on this installment. Such a provision was contained in the 1917 revenue act, but was removed by the revenue act of 1918. "Payment of the fourth installment may be made in cash or by money order or check. The Bureau of Internal Revenue urges that whenever possible payment be made by check or money order. This method helps the taxpayer by saving him a trip to the collector's office and avoids congestion at the cashier's window. Check or money order should be made payable to 'Collector of Internal Revenue.'

"Bills will be sent to taxpayers, but failure to receive a bill does not relieve the taxpayer of his obligation."

NEWS OF THE ARMY.

Army recruiting officers are again busy. During the month of December to date there have been twelve enlistments from Morgan county. Yesterday was the biggest day so far this month when five more Morgan county men enlisted in the United States army. Those who enlisted yesterday were: Elzie F. Youngblood, of White Hall, who enlisted for one year in the 54th infantry, Camp Grant, Ill.; Frank E. Smock, son of Mrs. Charles Smock of Roodhouse, enlisted for one year in the 54th infantry at Camp Grant, Ill.; Monroe Smith, step-son of J. H. Garrison, of Roodhouse, enlisted for one year with the 54th infantry, Camp Grant, Ill.; William H. Revis, Roodhouse, enlisted in the 54th Infantry Camp Grant, Ill., for one year, and Walter E. Dawson, Hersman, Ill., enlisted for three years with the 11th field artillery, Camp Grant.

The 11th field artillery, now stationed at Camp Grant, Ill., will leave Camp Grant on Monday, December 13, for Honolulu. They will embark from the Pacific coast some time in the early part of January. Those wishing to enlist in this outfit must enlist for a period of three years.

Naval reserves on inactive duty, may transfer to the regular navy if they have more than one year's service and receive four months' pay, the seven dollars increase and thirty days' leave; they may enter trade schools, but if their course is more than six months they must enlist for three years. They may go to any station on the east, south or west coast.

Ex-soldiers and marines may enlist in the navy, get thirty days' leave together with the choice of any ship or station. They will be enlisted as Seamen 2nd class and will not have to undergo training in naval school. Men with no previous military record may enlist in any first enlistment rating provide they pass the required examination.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT

Monday night Mr. and Mrs. George Berkley and little daughter and two other men passed through the city going west and camped on Allison Thomason's farm in Markham precinct. They were going from Detroit to Oakland, Cal., in a Ford car, and as the night was chilly they wrapped themselves well in blankets and went to sleep in the car and left the engine running to keep warm. Somehow or other fumes from the gasoline escaped during the night and in the morning Mr. and Mrs. Berkley and daughter were insensible. Dr. Roberts of Chapin was hastily summoned and by strenuous exertion brought them to consciousness, but he said another hour in the car would have put them to sleep forever. For some time they felt dazed and queer but finally came around and the party proceeded on their journey.

PILGRIMS LANDING WILL BE OBSERVED AT I. C.

Plans are under way for the observance of the Pilgrim Tercentenary at Illinois college. The descendants of the Pilgrims have played such an important part in the history of Jacksonville and Illinois college that it seems appropriate that our city should commemorate the landing of the Pilgrims. The president of the United States has recently issued a proclamation calling upon the people generally, and especially upon all schools and colleges to observe the historical event.

Since the college will not be in session at the exact anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims, the observance will be observed at the chapel exercises Monday morning, Dec. 13. Dr. Ozora S. Davis, president of the Chicago theological seminary and a most forcible speaker, will deliver the principal address. Dr. F. S. Hayden, dean emeritus of the college, will also make a brief address on "Illinois College as an Outpost of the Pilgrim Movement." There will also be some special music. The exercise will be held at 9:30 in the morning and friends of the college and all who are interested in honoring the Pilgrims will be welcome to the exercise.

E. A. Marvel of Springfield was attending to business matters in the city yesterday.
